(SMITHFIELD, NC) – A ribbon cutting ceremony was held Thursday at 118 N. Wilson Avenue in Dunn to celebrate KS Bank’s new Loan Office. The ceremony featured remarks from the Dunn Area Chamber of Commerce President Wesley Johnson, the Mayor of Dunn William P. Elmore, Jr., and KS Bank representatives Earl W. Worley, Jr., Harold Keen, and Judy Page. An invocation was provided by Darren Hughes, Administrative Pastor with Central Baptist Church.

President/CEO of KS Bank, Earl W. Worley, Jr. said, “We are very thankful for the overwhelming amount of support we have received since bringing our brand of community banking to Dunn in the form of this Loan Office. We are excited to serve the Dunn and Harnett County markets and all of their lending needs.”

The Loan Office will serve businesses in and around Harnett County as they look for assistance with commercial loans.
